Delicious Flavours of the Golden West W.A.

Evans & Tate Classic Semillon Sauvignon Blanc, Cabernet Merlot

We are stuck for words, well almost, we could talk about this unreal pricing our buyer has negotiated for 500 words but no the wonderful tastes of these outstanding blends need expanding on, they are a knock out. It is a great effort to get one blend perfectly showcasing each grape variety, Evans & Tate gets them both just right. The red aromas are mulberry from the Cabernet and plum from the Merlot, the same fruits on the palate but the plum doesn't show strong until the middle palate then they get together for dancing at the long finish. The classic Margaret River Semillon presents first in the white, herbs, lemon grass and lanolin and then the Sauvignon Blanc arrives like a cavalry charge all lime zest, fresh cut grass and passion fruit but still wonderfully balanced.....What a pair?.....and the price, sensational.

Marlborough Magic!

Secret Stone Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

Another delight from Marlborough and we happily add this to our extensive range of sauvignons. Keep sending them over New Zealand as we love them and as we have often remarked, think they are the perfect wines for our climate. It is hard to believe now but just a few years ago many of these wines were on allocation but now there is plenty for everyone. The point being that as a general observation we think the price per bottle has come back two to three dollars - and that is money back in your pocket - exactly where it belongs.

Matua Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2016

The Matua marketing people advise a cellaring time of just 5 minutes and then whack it in the fridge for a few hours, or one hour in the "chilly bin" if tight for time. Spot on bros, spin the cap and out jumps the aromas of a classic Marlborough Savvy, bright herbal notes, in fact the complete array of aromas the style is famous for. Think sage and fresh mint followed by delicious tropical fruits. The palate is vibrant citrus and sweet pineapple, together with length and structure.

A Very Fair Price for Good Honest Marlborough

Rahiti Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2016

Now we hardly needed any more examples of New Zealand Sauvignon, there are shelves of them, but we tasted Rahiti and we became instant fans, every element and characteristic of the more expensive "Savvies" was present and the price very reasonable indeed. Love at first sight - bright and almost clear with a touch of straw colours and even a little green tinge; a bouquet of fresh tropical fruits, passion fruit and the famous hint of fresh cut green grass; tastes of citrus, passion fruit and even gooseberry; a crisp acidity to aid the finish; overall fruity but not too sweet.

Marlborough New Zealand SB

Nobile Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc and Hawke's Bay Pinot Gris

Choosing which wine to buy is really very simple - always purchase good wines when they are on special. If your budget allows, buy what you can afford. Thus we believe this is an excellent Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc. We think you should take the opportunity to buy several or many bottles. What a glory Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc has turned out to be over the last few decades: beautiful, tasty wines that are attuned to the Australian outdoors lifestyle. The correct flavours though only develop in cool to cold regions such as New Zealand. This Nobile offers the correct flavours and is well priced. Next time you raise a glass say, "thank you New Zealand".

This Just Smashes $10 Marlboroughs

River Pebble Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

Fresh into our shops is this mighty New Zealander from Marlborough. We think you will agree that when a wine is of good quality and is very cheap it provides the consumer with a winning combination. In this case you are getting the taste you like at risk free price. A great deal of Marlborough Sauvignon is now flowing into Australia and we are on alert to watch out for the dud wines. To date we are relieved to say they are made very well indeed so we think we can safely say: trade down in price and save lots of money. Indeed we're so impressed with this wine, that it just had to be included in our catalogue.

Marlborough Price Buster

Stoneleigh Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

A wonderful, punchy, crisply textured, Sauvignon Blanc from Marlborough in New Zealand. Asked years ago to describe the flavours, we thought the best was to say that "if you like Granny Smith apples, you will love the taste of these wines". Even closer is the taste and smell of gooseberries but you will look high and low in the most fashionable fruit shops of Australia and not find this fruit, so few people actually know what a gooseberry tastes like. We are blessed that the quantities of Sauvignon Blanc are at last plentiful and as we often say, don't forget to say 'thank you New Zealand' next time you raise a glass say.

Adelaide Hills Beauty

Tempus Two Chardonnay

The spiritual home of Tempus Wines is the Hunter Valley NSW where it was established by the famous McGuigan family but the fruit for their classy wines can come from any region in Australia which they believe is excelling in the variety. Thus this cool climate Chardonnay hails from Adelaide Hills and the Tempus people have done it proud, the bouquet all peaches, nectarine and quince, the palate citrus and peaches and the finish a bright lemony acidity. We add a thought from the Winemaker -

"The high standard of Wines here is really fantastic and the atmosphere in the Winery is great so I couldn't ask for more." - Andrew Duff

SSB is Terrific From W.A.

Evans & Tate Gnaragara Semillon Sauvignon Blanc

Of course our heading is a little way out as it is not just Semillon Sauvignon Blanc that thrives in West Australia. They make some of our best wines in every variety and so they should as WA Winemakers so often boast that they cannot remember a bad growing season, it was so long ago, especially when their Eastern Aussie friends are in hearing distance. No surprise this little blend knocks your socks off, clear and pale coloured, the bouquet citrus fruits and fresh cut grass and the palate vibrant lime and snowpeas, the finish dry with a natural acidity. Definitely one for a permanent spot in the bar fridges.

Just Australian Through & Through

19 Crimes Chardonnay

Well if you ever need a prime example of a real Australian Chardonnay this is your "huckleberry", an absolute beauty, no hints of NZ cool climate fruit, no French finesse or delicate touches and certainly no Californian hot sun. Here we have bold and strong stone fruits jumping out with hints of nuttiness and toast from the oak, a sweet textured palate with hints of butterscotch and honey to lift the fruit and add the balance and complexity. Go you good Aussie!!

Burge Gets It Right AGAIN!!

Grant Burge GB Series Chardonnay

Grant Burge has it just right here, the wine matched to it's price perfectly. We love it from the old style nose of yellow peaches, melons and pineapple with that toasty, yeasty hint of oak alive and kicking in the background, the palate just more of the above fruit and then you notice how subtle the oak treatment is and then the finish so rounded and rich carrying on long after the last drop is consumed.

Not Just Great Reds Taylor Family

Taylor's Taylor Made Chardonnay

Normally we describe a wine colour, nose, palate, flavours, finish, but here we get confused because the balanced complexity just makes it one whole item, hard to split up, please explain you say well as we are admiring the lovely long finish with it's natural acidity we are still getting the citrus and gunsmoke aromas, the flavours of white peach and brioche and oh that rich creaminess which comes from the barrel fermentation the winemaker tells us. What balance, a must buy for any special occasion.

Wolf Blass Red Label Wines

Think value; think Wolf Blass - that is a buying thought to carry around as you do the day-to-day shopping. The grand master Wolf Blass has had a profound influence on wine making in Australia, to make softer, rounder wines with a much balanced style. The secret is to alter towards an appeal wanted by the modern consumer, who wishes to drink a wine, purchased today, that evening. Long the best sub-$10 wines on the shelves. Well done Mr Blass.
